Dear Dermot,

I have pleasure in transmitting a letter from the Prime Minister to the Taoiseach in response to his generous message to her on her election victory.

Yours sincerely,

THE PRIME MINISTER

15 June 1987

Dear Mr. Haughey,

Thank you very much for your kind and generous message about the outcome of the General Election. I share your wish to have an early talk and would hope we could arrange this in the margins of the European Council in Brussels at the end of the month. Perhaps our offices could be in touch to fix a time once the timetable for the European Council is known more precisely. In the meantime I send you my best wishes.

Yours sincerely
Royal Highness

Mr Charles Haughey, T.D.

The Rt. Hon. Mrs Margaret Thatcher MP FRS
Prime Minister.

Dear Margaret,

Congratulations to you on your historic victory. From our position here, we see it as a well deserved tribute to your great personal qualities, particularly your skill and resolution.

I look forward to working with you in seeking ways constantly to improve the whole range of cultural, commercial and other relationships between our two countries in the European and wider contexts and, in particular, to bring an end to divisions in this island and lasting peace and stability to Northern Ireland in the framework which has already been set.

With all best wishes and personal regards

Yours sincerely

Charles Haughey
