Politicians snub retirement party - News - Sunday Life

Wednesday, November 07, 2007

BELFAST TELEGRAPH

Belfast Telegraph - IPR Website of the Year

Search Site

Loadzajobs | Propertynews | Belfast Telegraph | Ireland's Sat Night

Advanced Search

ADVERTISEMENT

Loadzajobs.co.ukPropertynews.com	Sunday Life Your Life, Your Paper		Belfast Telegraph ONLINE ARCHIVE
Sunday Life	Home > News		Search from over 400,000
o Home	News		articles Dating back to 1995
⊊ News
o Sport	Politicians snub retirement party		Belfast Telegraph titles
• Features	Sunday, November 04, 2007
Archive	By Joe Oliver	• 🖳 Email
Other Services	Police Ombudsman Nuala O'Loan is at the centre	Article	ADVERTISEMENTS
ရ Jobs	of a shock 'snub' mystery following a farewell function to mark her retirement from the	Print Version
🖭 Training	controversial post.	Version
• Dating	Representatives from all the major parties were invited	• 🔊 Search
م Gaming ع Reader Offfers	to join her staff and 150 guests at the gathering.		135531456255225252
Other Titles	But only a handful of locally-elected politicians turned up - and that meagre number included her husband Declan.		and
Bolfast Tolograph	The absence of anyone from the DUP, Ulster Unionists and Sinn Fein quickly became a major talking point among those attending the function - at the Harbour Commissioners' offices in Belfast.		point -
 Belfast Telegraph Ireland's Saturday Night 			point
	One guest told us: "We didn't know if there was some sort of boycott or if they simply hadn't received their invitations.		heir
	"But their absence was very noticeable."
	Mrs O'Loan is due to officially quit her post tomorrow(correct) after nearly seven ground-breaking and bruising years investigating the police.
	Chief Constable Hugh Orde, Security Minister Paul Goggins and Policing Board chairman Des Rea all spoke at last week's function in Mrs O'Loan's honour.
	Alliance Party leader David Ford, SDLP Assembly member Alex Attwood and North Antrim MLA Mr O'Loan were the main political representatives.		Loan
	A spokesman for the DUP said of the party's absence: "We are inundated with requests for functions like this and we can't attend all of them."		ke
	A UUP spokesman told Sunday Life: "There were diary commitments that prevented our representatives on the Policing Board being represented."		es on
	And Sinn Fein MLA Alex Maskey said: "There was no question of any snub or slight by my party."
	More articles in News
	Peace Corr!
	Turkey for Christmas!
	Sinn Fein threatened my son says McCarry
	Anger over police leak to O'Loan
	Paisley beaten by a Bishop!

ADVERTISEMENTS

Politicians snub retirement party - News - Sunday Life

© Belfast Telegraph