3rd February, 1965.

Dear Prime Minister,

At our meeting in Belfast on the 14th January, we agreed to explore all possibilities of practical co-operation in matters of common interest and I promised to send you a list of such matters for your consideration. I now enclose such a list, and I hope that, during your visit to Dublin, we shall be able to set in motion procedures for the joint examination of these possibilities by Ministers and by officials.

I look forward to meeting you and Mrs. O'Neill on the date we have agreed.

Yours sincerely,

BEÁN F. LEMASS

Captain The Rt. Hon. Terence M. O'Neill, M.P.,
Prime Minister,
Stormont Castle,
BELFAST.
