PRESS RELEASE

The following statement was issued this evening,
29th October, 1970, by the Government Information Bureau.

The Taoiseach announced this evening that the Government had made arrangements with the Government of India for the repatriation of the remains of the Connaught Rangers, James Daly, Patrick Smythe and Peter Sears from India. The National Graves Association are in charge of the arrangements for re-interment on behalf of the families.

The remains of Patrick Smythe and Peter Sears will be re-interred at Glasnevin on 31st October and the remains of James Daly will be re-interred at Tyrrellspass on 1st November.

The President and the Taoiseach will be represented at the ceremonies by Aides de Camp.
