Note

On the instructions of the Minister I raised with the British Ambassador the killing of Martin Malone in Armagh by the UDR on July 30.

I said we were very worried by this event and also by the absence by any enquiry into the several similar cases in Armagh and elsewhere during the past month in Northern Ireland.

Mr. Goodison noted my remarks and said he would convey them to his authorities. He added that they were in contrast with the unhelpful statement of Cardinal Ó Fiaich which he had found unbelievable.
