8 April 1987.

Mr. Alastair D.W. Logan,
8 Milkhouse Gate,
High Street,
Guildford,
Surrey GU1 3AX,
England.

Dear Alastair,

Thank you for your letter of 18 March and your words of congratulation. You can rest assured that the new Government will do everything that is practical and prudent to assist the Guildford Four and the Maguire family in their struggle to clear their names. As soon as I have an opportunity, I intend to raise the matter personally with the British Home Secretary and other British officials.

I viewed the latest ITV programme on the case with great interest and I am glad to hear that the Home Secretary is currently considering new evidence which has arisen, in particular the testimony of Mrs. Yvonne Fox. My Department is ready to assist in every way it can to ensure that justice is done to these people who have already suffered so much.

Yours sincerely,

BRIAN LENIHAN
