

An Chartlann Náisiúnta National Archives

Reference Code:	2017/11/487
Creation Dates:	February 1987
Extent and medium:	1 page
Creator(s):	Department of the Taoiseach
Accession Conditions:	Open
Copyright:	National Archives, Ireland. May only be reproduced with the written permission of the Director of the National Archives.

IRELAND AND OUR NEIGHBOURS

Labour is dedicated to the promotion of peace and stability in Northern Ireland, through reconciliation of the two traditions, and through a guaranteed voice for the minority community in Northern Ireland.

Labour at home and abroad is committed to the pursuit of peace, justice and human rights.

Labour's policy is:

- Irish neutrality must be formally enshrined in our Constitution.
- Solidarity with the Third World and a generous programme of development co-operation.
- Full mandatory sanctions against apartheid in South Africa.
- Commitment to nuclear disarmament and an end to the international arms race.

SHAPING THE FUTURE

Labour's answer to the crisis is based on a set of minimum policy demands. There is no room for compromise on these measures. No other Party can count on our support after an election if they refuse to agree to these policies in full. The programme in this Manifesto is firmly based on the work of Labour's Commission on Electoral Strategy.