Over 1000 leads in Quinn case

Gardaí say they are following over 1,000 lines of inquiry in their investigation into the murder of south Armagh man Paul Quinn.

The 21-year-old died after being violently attacked and beaten at a shed near Castleblaney, Co Monaghan three months ago.

Superintendent Karl Heller said Gardaí are determined to bring the perpetrators of Paul Quinn`s murder to justice.

He said the police are appealing to the family and friends of those responsible to examine their consciences adding that Gardaí are liaising closely with the PSNI who are also carrying out many inquiries.
