Family of murdered SF man to meet Police Ombudsman staff

Wednesday, January 24, 2007

The family of a murdered Sinn Fein councillor are due to meet staff from the Police Ombudsman's office in the North later today to discuss their ongoing campaign for justice.

Eddie Fullerton was shot dead at his home in Buncrana, Co Donegal, in 1991.

Police Ombudsman Nuala O'Loan is investigating the family's claim that British security forces colluded with the loyalist killers.

Earlier this week, Ms O'Loan published a damning report accusing the RUC Special Branch of colluding with a loyalist gang in Belfast which murdered up to 15 people between 1991 and 2003.
